Secure Twenty-six Seats
Out of Forty-six in Assembly

EIGHTEEN LIBERALS

Rural Vote May Change
Results Some—Country
Party Two Seats

ADELAIDE, Australia, April 6.—Canadian Press Cable Report.—"Returns of the South Australian election were still incomplete but the results are now known to date shows that the Labor party has won 26 seats, while the Liberal assembly of 46, while the Liberals have lost 18, and the Country Party 2 seats. The country party, which had 10, however, is expected to win back its seats.

When interviewed yesterday Prime Minister Bruce said he believed it was possible the Labor Party would have a majority of 10 seats over the other parties combined.

The chief plan in the Labor Party platform is to increase the minimum wage in a manner in which they took direct action. The Labor Party leader, Harry Harwell who favored the introduction of control of labor in the northern states, is dead.

Although this is a federal matter, Bruce said the government's position is that the tropical hell of the situation in the coal fields of South Australia has been created by colored labor and he thus made the coal question an issue in the other states where the miners are in favor of abolition of the upper house and redistribution of the lower chamber from 46 to 23. The plan also provided a guarantee that all miners receive their proportionate representation, cessation of the strike, and a thorough endorsement of the miners' right to strike.

Labor also demands that the state government, which the tropical hell of the situation in the coal fields of South Australia has been created by colored labor and he thus made the coal question an issue in the other states where the miners are in favor of abolition of the upper house and redistribution of the lower chamber from 46 to 23. The plan also provided a guarantee that all miners receive their proportionate representation, cessation of the strike, and a thorough endorsement of the miners' right to strike.

TANK EXPLOSION KILLS TWO WORKERS AT REFINING PLANT

CAHOKIA, Ill., April 6.—Two workmen were instantly killed and one seriously injured in an explosion today at the Illinois Refining Company's plant when a tank used in a distillation process exploded from an undetermined cause.

The tank was hurled more than 100 feet through the air by the force of the explosion.

STOLEN MONEY IS IDENTIFIED

$23,000 Loot Taken by
Montreal Bank Bandits
Recovered

MONTREAL, April 6.—Identified on a large number of the bills recovered by "detectors" who sat at the bank's hold-up, the Bank of Montreal, which was held up yesterday, was established Saturday by a crew of the bandits of the "Technique."

When the bandits left, they obtained the grounds for the Technique, which is a large hall where the building was remodeled so the farmers were crowded to the limit. They had a telephone, their scales, phone and rest room. They had a safe away down in the basement, and the bandits got out to get the lock opened and then return to wait for a load.

Some of the loads have been there since the robbery, and the bandits expect they are not to be there for days yet because of the general conflagration.

The farmers who own loads here have many miles out in the country and will soon eat up the proceeds to live at a hotel every night till the bandits can afford to pay for feeding their horses.

Enquiries were made at the other banks, and when the masks were discovered, which were very similar.

In the week end, it was found every week that the cloth was exchanged for the mask, so that the bandits could complete together to make one.

Cambridge Springs Surprise by Defeating Oxford Eight

SUNDERLAND IS FURTHER ENTRENCHED AT HEAD OF FIRST DIVISION

Cambridge Crew Beats Heavier Oxford Eight By Smooth Team Work

Dark Blues Go into Race 3 to 1 Favorites, But Cambridge Rows in Splendid Unison, Plugs Along and Wins by Four and One-Half Lengths—Time 18 Minutes 41 Seconds

FUTNEY, England, April 6.—Pulling their oars in splendid unison, Cambridge's crew of youngsters, won a brilliant victory in the annual boat race on the Thames Saturday afternoon over an Oxford shell filled with more experienced men and heavier.

Oxford was a 3 to 1 favorite and was conceded the victory beforehand by every critic writing for the British press. What brought about the surprise and the dumbfounding of the "experts" was another example of the triumph of team work over co-ordinated efforts of better men.

From the start of the race at Putney Bridge to the finish at Mortlake, 4½ miles away up the Thames, the eight boys in the Cambridge boat moved in perfect unison and a smoothness that was finished in every detail while the men in the Oxford boat never got behind their stroke. The need to tire after the first mile, which had been half but a half-length a mile and half from the start, was overcome by a great effort the crew approached the finish.

When the race was over conditions were ideal, and the crews were confirmed by hundreds of thousands of cheering spectators on both banks.

The start Oxford hit a furious stroke of 43 to 30 the minute while Cambridge was content with 26 to get them off to a good start, while they both struck 21 but Oxford was moving fastest.

The light blues needed only one length each stroke and certainly their university Oxford gave way.

After passing under Hammersmith bridge, Oxford had a lead of 10 feet from the start, Oxford seemed to show weariness.

The men who appeared still kept fresh to an even 21 and continued to move forward.

Their Oxford sprung again but the conquering Catanians would not be beaten. They just kept plugging steadily at 31 and the decisive Oxford burst.

Their lagged for a moment but behind on the last mile with a sweeping swing, seemed capable of going on for a mile or so further.

Their Oxford had a lead of 10 feet over their own men when the men in the Oxford shell dropped over their own bow.

The time was 15 minutes, 41 seconds, the fastest ever rowed over the river since the famous Oxford's time in the victory of 1913 when the dark blues won over the course.

The Cambridge victory was most popular.

FIRPO K.O.'S AL, REICH IN FIRST ROUND

"Wild Bull of the Pampas" Does the Trick Two Minutes After Start

Buenos Aires, April 6.—TOM FIRPO, the South American heavy-weight champion, last night added another victory to his record by defeating Al Reich, who came to Buenos Aires with championship aspirations.

Firpo's powerful right twice turned the trick in less than two minutes after start, and he was declared the winner.

Reich wanted no time in going to the ring, and Firpo, after a couple of heavy rights to the body and head, sent Reich to the canvas in the first round.

Notwithstanding desperate efforts, he was unable to rise within the time limit, and the referee of ten was carried to his corner.

Firpo waited no time in going to the ring, and Firpo, after a couple of heavy rights to the body and head, sent Reich to the canvas in the first round.

Reich received a great blow to the jaw and came in again, but was again sent to the canvas in the second round.

In 1921 Ruth made his world's record of 59 circuit smashers, which is likely to stand for some time, although the Bahn thinks that it is going to beat it this year. Ken Williams got 24, Rogers Hornsby 21, and Cy Williams, 18 this season.

Taking the respective totals of these four swatmists for the past three years, we find that Babe Ruth had 135 home runs, Ken Williams 92, Rogers Hornsby 85, and Rogers Hornsby 80. There was no other player in the same class with these four for extra base hits of the four-ply brand.

Hornel, of Detroit, was the closest, with 58.

According to these figures, and figures do not lie, although the figures are not exact, the L.B.A. can do any high-class swatting and claim the title of "Prince of Swat."

During the six seasons that Ken has played with the St. Louis "Browns" he has done something more than spank out home runs. His batting average for that time has been well over the charmed .300 mark. Last year he hit .357, and the year before .334.

RAILS MAKE SHARP GAINS AT NEW YORK

Heavy Profit Taking Sales Unsettle Market—Oils Go up

N.Y.—April 6.—Heavy profit taking sales among the speculative industrialists unsettled Saturday's stock market after an earlier day's strong market, when oil stocks made sharp gains.

Leadership of the rails was further accentuated by a sharp rally in the stocks of the railroads, which touched 117 1/2 in its history, before falling back to 116 1/4 at the close, a gain of 1 1/4 per cent.

American Agricultural Chemicals were weak spots. Liquids, which had been the most active organization, carried the common stock down from 44 1/2 to 43 1/2, low prices for the year.

Oil stocks, which had been trading most steadily, made sharp gains in the industrial list. High-speed specialists, such as the steel and motor car companies, sustained sharp losses. General Motors declined abruptly from 100 to 95, while the American Can yielded a pair of their recent gains.

The oil stocks have the most impressive demonstration of group strength. At one time, the oil stocks were up to 122, representing a gain of more than twelve points for the year. The oil stocks have suffered advanced a 2 1/2 per cent, and both Tulsa and Houston showed moderate gains.

Total stock sales, 478,000 shares over these prices.

ASKS STAY IN PROCEEDINGS

Shareholders Seek Delay in Liquidation of North-Western Life

WINNIPEG, April 4.—The application of H. J. Andrews, K.C., for a stay in the liquidation of the North-Western Life Assurance Co. was adjourned by Justice Macdonald until such time as the president of the company or the chairman of the board would appear. The shareholders were threated by the vigilance of the police, who were sent to the notorious "Al" Rogers' shop, dry-goods store, where the bandits dared again to enter the premises on the clearing up of the affair and only Friday were able to obtain one-quarter million dollars' worth of the bonds.

The first trial in the west has been cleaned up the organized gang of robbers who carried out that daylight robbery in Eastern Canada, and it has had a strong appeal to the public's sense of justice. With the trial next Saturday of Walter A. Brown, clean-up in Alberta has been nearly concluded, it is stated.

Mr. Hutchinson, who was promised to address a meeting of returned men and women in the near future. The date and place for the meeting will be announced later.

BRITISH MINISTRY IS WELL TRAVELED

So Declares Sidney Webb; Six of Them Have Visited Australia

LONDON, April 6.—"Canadian politicians are the best in the world," declared Sir Sidney Webb, president of the board of trade, in a speech to the British here in connection with the coming British Empire Exhibition.

"We have 12 ministers in our cabinet, while the English people could not be able to find in moving 12,000 men and women, a man different in essence from moving from Yorkshire to Devonshire."

Sir Joseph Cook, Australian high commissioner in London, said that the Australian professors were working in the London university at the present time.

Juvenile Riding Events Feature Saturday Show

Miss Violet Bode Winner in the Heavyweight Hunter Event—Nancy Bradley and Graeme Stewart Are Best Riders Under Fifteen Years

Saturday was "Children's Day" at the Spring Show, and practically every event was open to children riding ponies. The audience also was large, and the show was well attended.

One exception was the class for heavyweight hunters, in which Nancy Bradley, 15, and Graeme Stewart, 16, were the best.

Violet Bode, 14, was second and second place, with Hard Up and Maxine, 13, third.

The harness pony championship was secured by Nugget, owned by G. Adams & Son, who placed first.

The saddle pony championship was awarded to War of War, ridden by Irene Munro.

Nancy Bradley won the Gordon Stables trophy, and the trophy under 15 years of age, and Graeme Stewart won the C. J. Yorath medal for the best rider under 15.

The pony awarded in the ticket sales contest by the Edmonton Society was a gift from James Murray, and Misses Adamsen, Murry and Boyd took second place, while the bicycle was presented with the bicycle.
